Reward and Benefits

Our reward and benefits are designed to create an environment where our people can flourish. We are committed to building a culture where our people have access to the necessary benefits to help promote a healthy lifestyle and thrive. Besides a competitive salary, you'll receive our core benefits and a range of voluntary benefits to choose from focused on health, family and wellbeing.

We value and respect difference within our firm and have an inclusive and flexible approach to bank holidays, allowing our people to choose when they take their public holidays throughout the year. We want to support our people in celebrating holidays and occasions that are important to their religion, ethnicity, culture heritage or other parts of their identity and this is just one way we do this.

Why Grant Thornton?

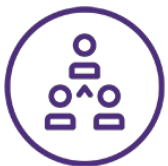

Agile working

We encourage our people to explore, within their teams, how they can work in an agile way which allows them to be at their best, deliver high-quality work and meet their responsibilities in and outside of work. Our 'how we work' guide outlines our approach to agile working.

Wellbeing

We care about the wellbeing of everyone at Grant Thornton and work with individuals to make sure they are supported where needed with a range of benefits focused on the wellbeing of our people.

Inclusion first

Included and valued for your difference is how everyone should feel at work. Not just because it's right, but because we're all at our best when we're able to be ourselves.

It's not just about us

We're passionate about making a difference in our communities. On a national and regional level we work hard to ensure we are giving back to the communities we work within, and making changes across the firm to benefit wider society, and our planet.
